

2023 New Jersey Quantum Matter and Information Forum

A Rutgers/Princeton initiative to foster connections and collaborations in the Garden State

It's time to register for the 2nd annual New Jersey Quantum Matter and Information Forum (NJQMI Forum)! Jointly organized by Rutgers and Princeton University graduate students, the event will be held at Rutgers on Saturday 15th, April 2023.

Here is the planned itinerary

10:00 - 10:25 : Arrive at Serin Physics Building, New Brunswick.
10:30 - 11:15 : 1st invited speaker: Prof. Jak Chakhalian (Rutgers)
11:15 - 11:45: Coffee Break
11:45 - 12:30 : 2nd invited speaker: Prof. David Huse (Princeton)
12:45 - 13:30 : Catered lunch
13:30 - 15:30 : Invited graduate student and postdoc talks
15:30 - 16:00 : Coffee break
16:00 - 17:00 : Lab Tours
17:00 - 18:00 : Post Session
18:00 - 18:15 : Closing remarks and leave for dinner in area

Our 2022 inaugural event was such a success that we're excited to do it again! The goal of this forum is to foster long-term friendships within the quantum condensed matter physics research community. Hopefully, we can all learn from each other and maybe even start some collaborations together!
